THIRD CHAMBER CONCERT OFFERS VARIED PROGRAM

An interesting variety of composers and instruments is offered by the third concert of the University of Montana's 1968-69 chamber series, scheduled Sunday (March 9) at 8:15 p.m. in the Recital Hall.

Seven UM music faculty members will take part in the free concert, which opens with Suite No. I in G major (for unaccompanied cello) by J. S. Bach, performed by Dr. Florence Reynolds.

Dr. Edwin Rosenkranz, bassoonist, and Lucien Hut, harpsichordist, will play Sonata III and Sonata V by Johann Ernst Galliard.

Dr. Joseph Mussulman, baritone, accompanied by Rudolph Wendt at the piano, will sing Five Rilke Songs from "The Book of Hours" (translated by Babette Deutsch) by Lowndes Maury. The composer, who lives in North Hollywood, Calif., is a UM alumnus and a frequent member of the UM summer music faculty.

The program will close with Serenade No. 10 (for harp and flute) by Vincent Persichetti, performed by Dr. Charles Bolen, flutist, and Mrs. Priscilla Eitel, harpist.
